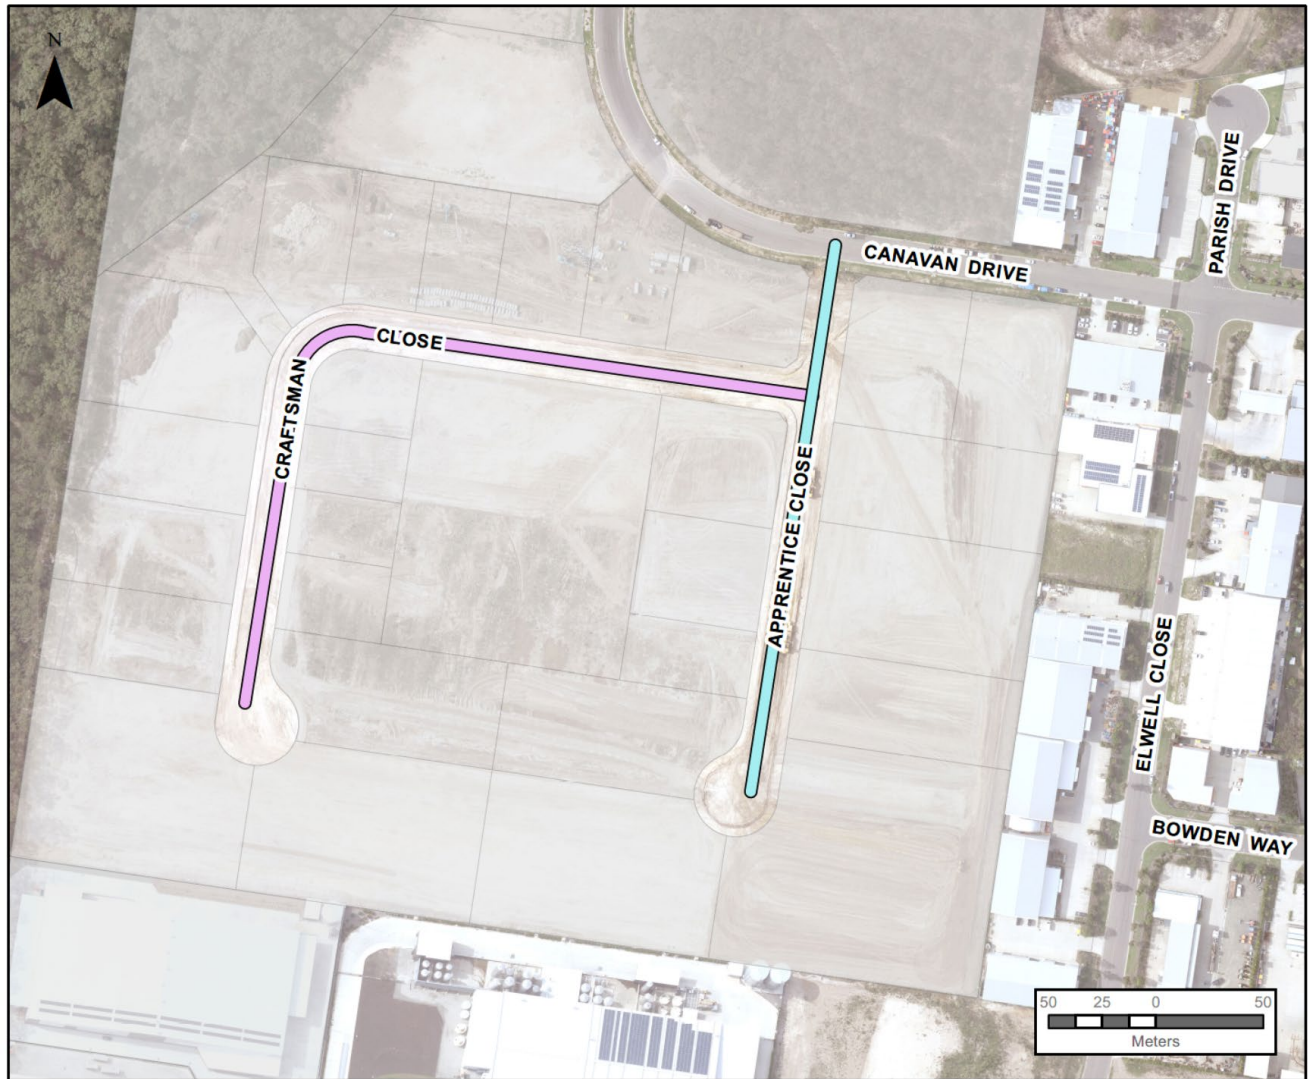

Exhibition

City of Newcastle is formalising road names for two (2) new roads in Beresfield. These road names have been approved by the Geographical Names Board and are currently in use. City of Newcastle is placing the names on public notice and inviting submissions from the public prior to publication in the NSW Government Gazette.

These roads have been named to facilitate addressing to aid emergency service location and service delivery. Please see the below table and attached location map (Attachment 1):

	Proposed Road Name	Name Origin	Description
1.	Apprentice Close	The name is in honour of the late Milton Morris OA, past Minister for Transport and Hunter Valley Training Company Chairman, who recently passed away. He was a previous owner of the property. Apprentice Close is in honour of his tireless work in training young people through the Hunter Valley Training Company.	Extends south from Canavan Drive
2.	Craftsman Close	The name is in honour of the late Milton Morris OA, past Minister for Transport and Hunter Valley Training Company Chairman, who recently passed away. He was a previous owner of the property. Craftsman Close is in honour of his tireless work in training young people through the Hunter Valley Training Company.	Originates at Apprentice Close, extending in a Westerly and then Southerly direction.
