

Journey by Aaron Becker

Reviewed by Jo

A young girl with a red crayon draws a door on her bedroom wall that leads her from the sepia tones of real life into a brilliantly coloured world. She uses her magic chalk to help explore this wondrous world, finding adventure and danger, and an unlikely friend.

The first in the Journey Trilogy (followed by Quest and Return), this Caldecott Honor Book has intricately detailed illustrations, with lush colours and a dreamlike quality. This wordless picture book is a wonderful book to explore at any age, alone or with a friend.

Available from Newcastle Libraries

Aaron Becker talks about the process of creating Journey on his website: <https://www.storybreathing.com/journey/>