Section 4 - Guidelines

- 4.1 The Donation of Reserve Furniture requires an application form to be completed by applicants seeking to donate furniture on reserves within the CN Local Government Area.
- 4.2 Donation of furniture is not supported along coastal public land being public spaces spanning the coastline from Stockton Beach to Merewether Beach.
- 4.3 People who donate reserve furniture may have a small dedication plaque installed on the furniture. Recognition will generally be limited to a plaque with the wording "Provided by (name)" or "Donated by (name)". Plaque dimensions are as follows:

Plaque dimensions		Costs
Type	316 Stainless Steel	Table	To be advised on application
Length	100mm	Seat	$3,000.00 incl GST
Height	50mm	Plaque	At Applicant's cost
Thickness	1.50mm

- 4.4 The placement of furniture needs to be consistent with the core objectives and intent of the relevant Plan of Management or associated CN approved Master Plans. In the absence of a Plan of Management or Master Plan, they must be consistent with the land's public purpose (what the land was reserved for) and must not result in any change of use.
- 4.5 The location is to be determined in consultation with Parks and Recreation staff to ensure that the proposal is complementary with existing and future uses and character of the park.
- 4.6 All costs such as materials and installation are to be met by the applicant.
- 4.7 All works are to be undertaken by CN or contractors on behalf of CN.
- 4.8 CN reserves the right to relocate furniture within a reserve in consultation with the original applicant.
