5 Newcastle Museum Visitation Strategy

- 5.1 Dr Lynda Kelly provided an overview on the operating environment for Museums and Galleries with key facts and figure comparisons for audiences noted. Newcastle Museum Director Julie Baird was also acknowledged for her work with the skateboarding community in Museum Park.

6 Libraries & Learning Update

- 6.1 Suzie Gately provided an overview on the new Integrated Library Management System and the Lambton Library and OPEN+ Technology recently installed. Lambton Library OPEN+ enables library members to access the library space and collections from 7am to 9pm seven days per week even when their visit it outside of staffed hours. Onsite CCTV also maintains the safety of patrons during accessible hours. Library staff members will be on site Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays between 2pm and 4pm.

7 External Presenters

7.1 The Big Picture Fest 2022 - Katerina Skoumbas

An overview was provided for the Big Picture Fest 2022. The Festival is set in five locations across three states coming to Newcastle for its second year over 30 September to 2 October (October long weekend being the final weekend of New Annual). Street art has an ability to make spaces feel safer and brings pride to the city revitalisation and cultural spaces. The Big Picture Fest for 2022 will involve eight new walls added to the City as well as QR codes linked to each mural and Augmented Reality (AR). Focus will also be given to aligning the works to pin-the-city's-art website for a digital display.

7.2 Grant Funding

Mitchell Reese (Curious Legends) and Dr Shane Brandson (Oz Theatrics) discussed challenges that exist within the cultural space for organisations, individuals or groups to apply for grant funding. Often there are many talented individuals or groups that cannot execute their ideas into grant applications and submissions due to process and submission challenges. Discussion centred on how Mitchell Reese and Dr Shane Brandson can work with CN officers to improve education and awareness of CN Grants, offer a workshop and educate on other available grants to assist other arts and cultural organisations in seeking grant funding and working collaboratively.

Action - Manager Community Strategy and Innovation Ashlee Abbott offered to meet with Mitchell Reese and Dr Shane Brandson to discuss progressing this

8 Community Members Expression of Interest (EOI)

- 8.1 A meeting was held 4 April with Councillors, Director City Wide Services and Executive Assistant to Director City Wide Services to discuss and assess Community EOI applications. Anna Hombsch, Dr Shane Brandson, Janice Musumeci and Jasmine Fletcher were successful in their applications as community members and Dr Ann Hardy and Matt Endacott were confirmed as Stakeholder members. It was also confirmed that Zephie Cerny from Octopod would be an invited guest to all meetings given her ongoing and valuable contributions both with Octopod and as an active meeting participant.

Action: Meeting is to be scheduled with the four new community members on 26 April
